

City of Character Recognition Form

The City of Avondale, the state's first City of Character, would like to hear of the good deeds done by its citizens who exemplify the character traits which make Avondale a better community for everyone.

Character Recognition May Be Made In The Following Categories:

Kids of Character — designed to recognize children up to 12 years old

Students of Character — designed to recognize middle through high school students

School of Character — intended to highlight innovative or worthy programs and initiatives in our schools

Persons of Character — to acknowledge good deeds or special achievements of individuals

Neighborhoods of Character — intended to recognize efforts by a particular neighborhood or HOA, for example, hosting a GAIN event or establishing a successful Watch program

Businesses of Character — this category encourages participation from the business community for efforts to create safe and community friendly environments.

Individuals, groups or organizations nominated for Character Recognition will be honored with a Certification of Recognition and will be recognized on the City's website.
